The 1995 Mississippi Junior/Community College All-State Band

■ The Mississippi Junior/Community College All-State Band was organized in 1971 by the Mississippi Junior College Band Directors Association. The primary goals of the All-State Band are to provide outstanding community college instrumentalists with an exceptional musical and educational experience, and to direct attention towards the work of the state two-year college system within the realm of instrumental music.

The Mississippi Junior/Community College Band Directors Association expresses its appreciation to Delta State University for hosting the 1995 All-State Band.

David Waybright

David Waybright attended Marshall University and received the BA degree with honors in Music Education and the Master of Music degree in trumpet performance in 1978. He received the Doctor of Musical Arts degree in orchestral conducting from the Cincinnati College -Conservatory of Music in 1982.

He taught in the public school system of West Virginia and has held Professorships at Ferrum College in Virginia, Plymouth State College in New Hampshire, McNeese State University in Louisiana and currently is Director of Bands at the University of Florida where he holds the rank of full professor and is the head of the conducting area. He administrates the entire band program at U.F., conducts the symphonic band and wind ensemble and guides the graduate conducting program.

Ensembles under his direction have made appearances at WASBE conferences in Skien, Norway, and Manchester, England, National MENC and CBDNA conferences and numerous state and regional conventions. He is the author of several articles in the field of music education and there are many recordings available featuring musical ensembles under his direction. He is active as a guest conductor and clinician with all-state and regional bands, orchestras and choirs and has conducted throughout the U.S. and Europe.

He is an elected member of the American Bandmasters Association and is active in CBDNA, WASBE, MENC, and the Florida Bandmasters Association. David teaches and enjoys scuba diving in his spare time and is an instructor with the National Association of Underwater Instructors.

He lives in Gainesville, Florida with his wife, Tracy.
